

DESERT HARVESTERS

2014 BEAN TREE HARVESTS & MESQUITE MILLING

Learn how to dramatically enhance the quality of your bean tree harvests, with this series hosted by Desert Harvesters.

THURSDAY JUNE 19, 2014

GUIDED HARVESTS AND PLANTINGS

4PM TO 7PM

Hosted at the Santa Cruz River Farmers' Market
100 S. Avenida del Convento, Tucson, AZ

5pm harvest on foot 6pm harvest by bicycle

Led by Desert Harvesters

$5 to $10 per person (sliding scale)

These hands-on harvest tours show you how to:

- Identify and sample the best-tasting mesquite trees
- How to harvest safely, ethically, and responsibly
- How and when to plant the best bean tree

BEAN TREE PROCESSING DEMONSTRATIONS

Before and after the Guided Harvests and Plantings

4pm to 7pm Taught by Barbara Rose of Bean Tree Farm

Demonstrations show you how to use:

- Desert Ironwood seeds, Palo Verde seeds, and mesquite pods into numerous tasty dishes

SUNDAY, JUNE 22, 2014

PRE-MONSOON MESQUITE MILLING

6AM TO 9AM

Hosted by Exo Roast Co.

403 N. 6th Ave. Tucson, AZ

Bring Your Own Pods!

Pods for milling must be clean, dry, and free of mold, stones, leaves, and other debris. Cost: $3/gallon of whole pods, with a minimum of $10.

Also Provided:

- Native foods demonstration
- Exo's mesquite, mole, and chiltepin-infused coffees
- Mesquite baked goods and cactus fruit popsicles
- Sale of seeds, seedlings of native bean trees and chiltepin (so you can plant yours in time for the rains).

HARVESTERS' HAPPY HOUR

4PM TO 7PM

Hosted by Tap & Bottle
403 N. 6th Ave. Tucson, AZ

Come join fellow harvesters in fermented merriment!

Great local brews on-hand.

A percentage of sales will be donated to Desert Harvesters.